SOME ECHOES FROM THE ALABAMA PRESS ASSOCIATION

ALABAMA EDITORS ENJOY SUCCESSFUL SESSION

Clio Free Press.

Fresh from the salt laden breezes of southern seas, and the delightful hospitality of the Queen City of the Wiregrass, the senior editor returns to his desk filled with new vigor and strength to perform his duties to the good people who read this sheet.

Upon our arrival in Dothan we were taken in charge by genial jovial Dr. Williams, who found nothing too good for us, and exerted every effort to make his "blackberry editor" have a good time. Dr. Williams is a "reformed" newspaper man himself, and, therefore, feels a brotherly sympathy for those of the craft. His good wife knows the way to an editor's heart—through his palate—and right daintily did she besiege it. We deemed it a privilege to be their guest.

On the afternoon of our first day (Wednesday) the editors and their ladies were taken for a drive in automobiles by the entertainment committee. On every hand was seen evidence of substantial and rapid growth. Whole blocks were seen spick and span with the newness of fresh paint, and the smell of the oil was all over the city. The streets were good and the drive was delightful.

The next morning we had the pleasure of listening to an able address on journalism by C. P. Mooney, editor of the Memphis Commercial Appeal. He is a native Southerner and was tempted by the attractive offers of Eastern journalism, but after two years service yielded to the call of his native Southland, and returned to her hospitable bounds. His address was of great practical value to the editors. After this session the editors and ladies grouped themselves around the magnificent courthouse for a picture which the Western Publisher had requested.

Wednesday night the Commercial Club tendered the editors a big banquet. This affair was a grand success, notwithstanding Bob Neil wore his "Ella" and stovepipe. "Bird" Farmer proved a felicitous toast master while the editorial speakers vied with each other in chaffodising over the entertainment and painting the glorious possibilities of the Wiregrass. "Uncle Jake" Pepperman said that he was glad to have the editors go on record one time, as now if they made their usual "kick" he would pull their Dothan banquet speech on them. The Mullen Hotel, where the banquet was held, proved fully equal to the occasion, and the whole affair reflected credit upon the hosts.

The next morning (Friday) promptly at six we pulled out on a special train, provided by the Dothan Commercial Club, for Panama City, Fla., the coming deep water port of Florida. After a delightful ride through the great pine forests of West Florida we pulled into Panama City, where the party detrained and a gay little fleet of yachts were awaiting us. This progressive little city had prepared an excellent dinner, which was served by some of her most tropical parks, and was a delightful occasion. After dinner, those who cared for bathing were invited across to Gulf View, where rolls an excellent surf. Diving bathing suits Alabama editors and addresses dispensed themselves gaily for some time in the clear cold waters of the gulf; then we returned over the magnificent bay to our various homes along the coast. Friday night a brilliant ball was had at the Gulf View Hotel, a beautiful and commodious place, and until the wee smut hours, the editors, their wives, daughters and sisters, and the gallant young men and radiant young ladies of Panama City and St. Andrews tripped the light fantastic to the rhythm of music from the excellent hotel orchestra.

After the dance was over we again boarded the gallant little launch and returned to our homes.

Sitting on the roof of this gallant little launch as she nosed her way through the calm, clear waters of historical old St. Andrews, kissed by the cool, salt-laden breezes of the gulf, while we enjoyed the gentle swell of her mighty bosom, we were forced to acknowledge the beauty of this far-famed bay, and its commercial importance to Alabama.

The next day (Saturday) was another continuous round of enjoyment for the editors. St. Andrews entertained the editors with a delightful dinner in St. Andrews Park, after which Hon. C. M. West entertained them at his beautiful home at old St. Andrews. Watermelons were served here, and you may be sure we enjoyed the luscious fruit.

That afternoon at 4:30 we entrained, for the return journey, and we reached Clio Sunday morning about 9 o'clock, worn out, but glad we took the trip.

WONT ADDRESS CLUB

MR. HECHINGER COULD NOT REMAIN FOR MEETING

But Has Left His Proposition to the Commercial Club in Writing with the Secretary.

Mr. L. Hechinger will not address the Commercial Club on migration Monday night, as reported in yesterday's issue. On account of appointments at other places, Mr. Hechinger could not remain over to the meeting which was postponed on account of the rain Thursday night. Mr. Hechinger has a proposition to submit to the club to bring a number of German farmers to the county. He has left his proposition in writing with Secretary Layfield and this will be read before the meeting at the council chamber Monday night.

Other important business of the club at the next meeting will be the election of a president, vice-president and five directors. Secretary Layfield will render his annual report, and a large gathering of members and interested citizens is desired.

WILL APPEAL TO TAFT

NEGRO CENSUS ENUMERA- TORS NOT WANTED

Appointments Would be Offensive Giving Negroes Admittance to White Homes

The announcement is made from Washington that the Southern Congressmen will appeal to President Taft and ask him to prevent the appointment in this section of negroes as census enumerators; and this is believed to be the only way in which to shut out the negroes. The new census director holds to the view that the census appointments are political patronage, to be reserved exclusively for republicans although common sense would indicate, and past experience has shown, that the best census results are obtained by making the work as nearly as possible nonpartisan in character.

But, leaving this point out of consideration, there can be no question that the employment of negroes as census enumerators is most objectionable. Such appointments are offensive to the whites of the South, because they give negroes admittance to white households and the opportunity of questioning of white men and women.

Moreover, the appointment of negroes to these positions will not only inevitably cause trouble, but will prevent a correct census. We had an experience of this in 1870, our only serious census scandal. The census of that year was handled in the South largely by negro enumerators, and it proved in consequence most offensive and at the same time thoroughly bad and untrustworthy. The figures given for the South were a surprise, showing a condition of affairs totally unexpected, and which led to the forming of many erroneous theories and the passage of most unwise and unfortunate legislation. According to his enumeration the white population had remained stationary, whereas the negroes had increased so rapidly that they were in a majority in four of the Southern states and in hundreds of counties; and it is upon this supposed condition of affairs that much of the partisan legislation of reconstruction days was based, and many of the election returns were overturned.

When Gen. Francis Walker took the census of 1880 he exposed the fact and proved that the enumeration of 1870 was a public calamity that through either the ignorance and incapacity of the negro enumerators or the names of millions of persons had been omitted from the count.

The bad work thus done then as so upset our census figures that the enumeration of 1870 is now omitted from all statistical calculations as "a fake" unworthy of consideration, thanks to the employment of negro enumerators. Because of this experience alone there would be, it seems, the best of reasons for not employing negro enumerators—because from the nature as well as the popular opposition to them they can not do the work satisfactorily; but the racial objection would suffice. President Taft knows of the objection and the

AUTHORITIES HAVE ESTABLISHED HIS MARRIAGE TO TEN
WOMEN AND HIS ENGAGEMENT TO FOURTEEN MORE

Each of the Twenty-four Victims of John Madison Said to Have Lost Amounts Ranging as High as Two Thousand Dollars and in One Case Much More Through His Wiles

San Francisco, July 9.—John the meantime the police are trying Madison, wanted for bigamy in trying to secure a complete confession from him. United States and in many of the smaller ones, is in the hands of the police here. The authorities have established his marriage to ten women and his engagement to fourteen others. Each of the twenty-four women duped by Madison is said by the police to have lost more or less money by him. The largest amount was from Mrs. Elizabeth N. E. Jackson, of Iola, Kansas, from whom he is said to have obtained $1,400.

Madison is said to have deserted each of these women within a few hours after marriage. Among the women to whom he was either engaged or married, was one each in Jonesburg, Ark., Tottysburg, Ohio, and New Orleans, La. After a short and fervent courtship Madison induced Mrs. Katherine Baughman, of St. Louis, to marry him and sign over property valued at $1,000. He turned this into cash and deserted her. Mrs. Baughman left St. Louis, saying she was going to Los Angeles. A

Such out of the way places as Jacksonville, and that log cabin in Tennessee, four miles from any where, will soon have to be ditched

A young woman of Memphis was arrested the other day and placed in the lock up for trying to commit suicide. She failed and got into trouble. This ought to teach her a much needed lesson

The job of being a supreme court judge will have to be left out to the highest bidder if the thing keeps on of half assuming them of deciding an important legal point just as ordinary men might

A man went up in a balloon the other day in Chicago and when he got about a thousand feet from the earth something went wrong with the thing and he fell, and was seriously injured. One should be awful particular ballooning and not let one get so high, as death would have been the result had he been fifteen feet higher

Yesterday's Atlanta Constitution mentioned the name of Tom Watson. That paper hasn't been quoting Tom much since the gubernatorial campaign in Georgia a few years back, when Tom scraped up Hoke Smith and beat Clark Howell. This time it tells how the Jeffersonian editor is out for good roads

A couple of fast fellows in an automobile got to going so lively the other day in Cincinnati till they ran right into a mounted policeman and killed the horse. They would have made their escape for they never stopped, but the policeman got another automobile and gave chase. He found them later, broke down, and jail ed them

The "motion picture" business has knocked part of the steam out of that dollar a word contract the late president had with the magazine that was going to make some money out of it. The motion picture folks might not have been able to keep up with the young ones, but they got up something just as good, or good enough to make Mr. Roosevelt's stuff read like an old stereotype plate of the pictures were made in New York or Chicago

It is not safe to let a man in a cabin to live if there is no one to help him down the road a day in this state. A young man had lived with his wife after till the old man he left it was due some bread. The young man got so mad till he walked a mile to get a gun to kill the old man with. Any man or woman should be a mother and not let their married children cling to the home after it has this attraction. It can't

In fact Mr. McLean the man John D. Rockefeller had to go to come up to him and attend to the correspondence of the bunch will be looking for another job if he doesn't keep out of the public prints. He is putting in a bad deal of time here of late telling the people through the magazines what a job it is to reach for the richest corporation that can be surprised that in New York John D. never got in touch with the party who was always in the papers and telling the world what he was doing. The old man's motto was: "Mum" which interpreted means let him find it out if they can but don't tell anything not even in court not even in school or out. It is very likely that Mr. McLean won't pick up another job that is the map the present one seems

STRIKING COMPARISON

Mr. P. A. Brooks one of the best farmers in the west end of the county told the other day about driving his team along the road and an automobile came honking up behind him. He thought he would drive to one side when he got to a good place and let it pass. Then the honking and choo-chooing stopped and when he looked around he saw that the thing had pulled and one of the men was down twisting its tail. To the man who was once a boy and worked yearlings that got too hot this needs no explanation. It has also seen the auto cranked off

In old farmer down in Dothan who come into town with his clothes muddy and torn leading a mule hitched to a truck being probably a mule probably a mule. I thought that has passed through many a man's mind and surely he has come up with a new name. It is impossible when he said it is to a question as to what was he talking. INFORMAL ENTERTAINMENT

Miss Evelyn Farmer entertained a number of her friends informally yesterday evening with a jamboree party. A large bunch of bananas and a number of melons almost frozen suffered greatly by the treatment received from the crowd. But the melons and bananas more than got their revenge before the night was over.

The pleasure of the evening was added to very much by vocal and instrumental selections by Miss Farmer, Miss King, Mr. Wiggins and Miss Mamie Faircloth.

Those present were Misses Evelyn Farmer, Susie McKenzie, Hallie Jordan, Euna Barnett, Bertha Faircloth, Susie Mae Brown, Nona King, Mamie Faircloth and Edolene Brown.

Miss Mabel Kelley and Mr. Earl Peyton Sutton, of Fort Gaines, were married in Savannah on the fifth of this month. Miss Sutton is well known in Dothan having visited friends here on several occasions. Mr. Geo. W. Hammond, her brother in law, was once agent for the Central at Dothan.

The Home Missionary Society of the Foster Street Methodist Church will hold their regular meeting Monday evening in the ladies parlor of the church at 5:30 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

LINEMAN IS KILLED

Columbus, Ga., July 10—Sizzling like a piece of meat in a pan the body of P. C. Trammell hung twenty minutes to live wires above the street today, while horrified spectators looked on helplessly to give aid.

Trammell, a telephone lineman was at work on a pole when a telephone wire came in contact with a high tension cable that carried several thousand volts.

He fell across the cables and those on the ground saw him shiver and cringe to the end the body hanging fully twenty minutes before being rescued.

When the body of Trammell was taken down he was dead.

JOHN D. GIVES MONEY

New York, July 9—John D. Rockefeller today increased his donations to the general education board by a gift of $10,000,000 and also released the board from the obligation to hold in perpetuity the funds contributed by him.

The gift, announced today by Frederick T. Gates, chairman, brings Mr. Rockefeller's donation to the board to $52,000,000.

Today's gift was contributed, according to the statement made by Chairman Gates, because the income of the present fund available for appropriaion had been exhausted and a larger income to be derived from the new funds of great good reason for its existence and he has promised to take it into consideration in making Federal appointments. No possible advantage can accrue to the government or to the negro by endangering the success of the census and by needlessly insulting and embarrassing the Southern white people and we feel satisfied that when the matter is put up to the President he will recognize the wisdom of appointing only white enumerators. All negro officials are objectionable in the South and in proportion to the extent the whites have to do business with them. When it is the duty of a negro official to go into the household and demand information about the family he becomes doubly offensive and objectionable. We want no negro enumerators in the South. He told wonderful stories of his friend's business in Los Angeles. If he was encouraged the confederate would change correspondence between Madison and the woman. Madison would then seek a personal interview.

Woman Died from Shock of the Marriage

Springsfield, Mass., July 9—Mrs. Lucy Brown of this city believed to have been one of the victims of the alleged bigamist John Madison, under arrest in San Franisco died at Oxford in the spring of 1905, never having recovered from the shock of her ill-fated marriage.

She was about 48 years of age, the man whom she married represented himself as Christian Johnson, a wealthy ranchman of California.

Previous to her marriage she conducted a dressmaking business.

In nearly every case he induced the woman to become his wife. Madison had false ceremonies performed.

Woman Says Madison Robbed Her of Funds

Tolu, Texas, July 9—John Madison, under arrest in San Franisco on a charge of bigamy did not marry Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson of Tolu but according to a statement made today by the woman who has since married a Professor Seabrook, he defrauded her out of about $2,000 under a promise of marriage.

According to Mrs. Seabrook's statement Madison urged her to go with him to Kansas City after relating stories of his supposed wealth and there persuaded her to surrender to him the proceeds of a sale of her home in this city.

In Kansas City while leading her to believe he was making preparations for their wedding Madison she says disappeared. Mrs. Seabrook said today that she would prosecute Madison.

HIGH WIND IN PENSACOLA

Pensacola, July 9—Lightning had caused considerable damage during an electric storm this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

It struck the power house of the Pensacola Electric Company, taking up the machinery and toppling all cans for over two cans. When service was restored it was with machinery that did not carry all the cans and only half of the usual number remaining. It also struck the flag staff of S. B. A. No. 3 and damaged a small bridge in the north eastern portion of the city slightly.

The wind attained a velocity during the storm of forty-five miles an hour but no damage resulted from this except that a quantity of timber floated to vessels in the harbor.

LEARNING TO SHOOT

A Pensacola couple who had a boy about ten or twelve years old concluded that he was about the right age to learn to handle a pistol. They gave him one that he might learn the art of shooting. He shot out on the streets and scared a little girl about his age and secreted himself by the fence and when she came running along he ordered her to put up her hands. She didn't comply with his request promptly and he fired a shot, albeit through his will likely do and he is too little to punish and his parents are not responsible for their acts violently.

TAKE CARDUI

For Women's Ills

Mrs. Fannie Ellis, of Foster, Ark., suffered agony for seven years. Read her letter about Cardui. She writes: "I was sick for seven years with female trouble. Every month I would very nearly die with my head and back. I took 12 bottles of Cardui and was cured. Cardui is a God-send to suffering women." Try it.
